

Patton & Cooke

Cable Handling Tool

A Safe and Efficient Cable Handling Solution

Features

Benefits

Bright yellow
polytube shaft cover

Highly visible, easy to locate in mining environment

Helps protect fiberglass core from bruises and abrasions

Solid fiberglass core

High strength, light weight Good electrical isolation

28 inch tool length

Optimal length to reduce operator strain

Powder coated steel twist fork

Corrosion Resistant

Fork curvature allows for easy cable pick up and retention

The quality and durability of Patton & Cooke's existing line of Mining equipment, has already been proven throughout the mining industry world wide. We now have a new addition to the Patton & Cooke family. Introducing the new Patton and Cooke Cable Handling Tool. With an electrostatically applied powder coating and a PVC shaft with fiberglass back bone this tool is a handsome addition to any cable handlers arsenal. Highly resilient polyester powder coating ensures long lasting durability in extreme mining environments.

Patton & Cooke Mining Safety Products